EDITORIAL

Surely someone has solved the challenge posed by this year's DN cover? If so, why such modesty? Things are beginning to hot up for the Millennium - are you involved yet? On p.3 there's news, for example, of good progress with planning the Millennium Map; you could well help. And if you haven't yet been down to see the first flush of new growth at Daeda's Wood, see p.10 for your chance to sow seeds there for the 21st century. It's a beautiful spot.

A lot of enterprising things are happening, not least in much-needed support of Parish Church repairs: another London Marathon entry on p.6; and some nifty fingerwork on Deddington Lace Day (p.9). I marvel at the prospect of 100 lacemakers foregathering from far and wide. Volunteer drivers are needed by the Volunteer Bureau (p.6); adult support for the new Youth Bus enterprise (p.10); youth support for Cubs and Scouts (p.9); and a good turn-out by the 60-plusers to launch the new Monday Morning Club (p.11).

Things move on, and soon I shall be vacating the DN's editorial chair (full details next month). Among the many things I've learned in the three-plus years of my tenure is what a lot of work a dedicated minority put into our community. Sadly some very good ideas expire because of lack of support and it would really be a shame if, for example, that youth project (p.10) died through want of adult commitment.

Finally May 7 (see May Diary, p.13) provides your annual opportunity to let the PC have your views at the Annual Parish Meeting - hopefully positive as well as negative ones. There are interesting items in the pipeline (PC Report, p.2), including the Village Design scheme and the pros and cons of tourism. Do make a note of it in your diary NOW.

DEDDINGTON PARISH COUNCIL

Notes on meeting held in the Town Hall on Wednesday, 19 March attended by Cllrs Todd (chair), Clinch, Brewer, Clarke, Colley, Cosgrove, Drake, Fisher, Flux, Hill, Lee, Oddy, Stevens, Swash, C/Cllr Matthews, D/Cllr O'Sullivan and four parishioners.

DEDDINGTON BEECHES BOWLS CLUB: Cllrs Todd and Flux declared an interest and the chair was taken by Cllr Clinch. Mr John Boyt explained the Club's stance on the long-running dispute with the Windmill Committee over the Club's refusal to pay £480 for the eradication of fungus on the green. Mr Boyt said the Windmill Committee failed to tell the Club about the existence of the disease until six months after they had signed their agreement in March 1995, although the Committee had been aware of it since January 1995. Had the Club known the fungus was endemic in the green, they would not have taken it on. Mr Boyt said the Club enjoyed a good relationship with the PC and the Committee and appreciated their support. In reply Cllr Flux, chairman of the Windmill Committee, agreed with what Mr Boyt had said but produced minutes of meetings from 1996 at which the Club agreed to pay 50% of the cost of treatment. He said the PC had "gone out of its way to help and support the Club". Cllr Clinch said it was important to resolve the problem and the PC agreed to his suggestion that a small sub-committee should meet with the Club to examine all the issues before reporting back.

LOW COST HOUSING SCHEME: The Clerk, David Blakey, reported that work would not now start until the autumn because a legal agreement still has to be drawn up between the vendor and the housing association, and the land is leased for agricultural purposes until September. Cllrs Clarke, Oddy and Clinch expressed their disappointment, as the scheme "has been dragging on for years", and the Clerk was asked to find out how much it would cost in compensation to terminate the lease early.

VILLAGE DESIGN STATEMENT: Cllrs viewed a short video on the Countryside Commission's scheme to give local people a chance to shape future development in their village and to maintain its character (DN, February). They agreed it was a good scheme and although it would involve a lot of work it would provide an opportunity to influence District Plans and to protect the village. The Clerk said two villagers had already volunteered their services. There will be a presentation about the scheme at the Annual Parish Meeting on 7 May.

TOURISM: The Clerk read a letter from CDC's tourism officer with suggestions for promoting tourism in the Parish. The ideas, for which grants may be available, included a tourist information point, a plan of the Castle site, an historical village trail leaflet and free coverage of events in CDC's events guide. Three people wrote to the PC (DN March): Mrs Valentine of Market Place felt more tourists would further erode the quality of life for residents while Maureen Dew of Castle Barns would like to see improved access at Castle Grounds for cars, and the retention of the pavilion concrete base for picnic tables. She also offered to produce a simple guide to the Parish, with financial help from the PC. Sylvie Spenceley of The Daedings felt more could be done to inform people who stop off in the village en route to other places. An attractive leaflet at a reasonable cost could be produced by talented local people. Cllrs agreed with all the correspondents that parking was becoming a serious problem and that it was more important to cater for the existing numbers of visitors. They agreed to ask the school whether the playground could be used for parking at weekends, and to put tourism on the agenda for the Annual Parish Meeting.

RECREATION & GRANTS: 1. Concrete base of old pavilion at Castle Grounds to be demolished and replaced with two benches. Benches to be provided by developers of Low Cost Housing. 2. Contracts for grass cutting awarded to DesignGro (Windmill Centre and Castle Grounds, twice a year) and Mr J Boss (verges seven cuts, churchyard eight cuts, cemetery ten cuts, Mill Close & Tithe Lane open spaces eight cuts, Market Place and Goose Green six cuts). Villagers asked to trim their own edges and to notify PC of any uncut areas. 3. PC agreed to pay increased rent for allotments for the time being.

ENVIRONMENT: 1. All built-up areas, greens, roads, public verges and footpaths within the 30mph limit signs in Clifton, Deddington and Hempton to be included in CDC's dog fouling by-laws. PC to look into provision of extra bins for Clifton and Hempton. 2. Brownies will again take part in National Spring Clean Week from 18 April. 3. Clerk to order replacement for stolen seat in Clifton Road.

HIGHWAYS: 1. Proposed mini-roundabout in Hempton Road rejected by OCC in interests of safety. Cttee to report on alternatives. 2. There will be a site meeting on 15 April between OCC and PC to examine High Street/New Street footpaths. 3. Southern Electric say it is too costly to lay underground cables. They would contribute 50% but the cost to the PC would be £40,000 a kilometre.

PLANNING: 1. PC has no objection to plans for modest alteration at Paper Mill Cottage or for three houses at College Farm Hempton, although Cllrs require clarification on plans for garages. No objections to small extension at North End Barn, Hempton, ground floor alteration to Coach House, Horse Fair or dormer windows at The Retreat, Chapel Square. 2. Cllrs discussed application for anglers' car park at Boulderdyke Farm, Clifton. Plans are identical to the retrospective application which was refused last year. Cllrs were told the fishing lake does not need permission under case law because it was formed for drainage to agricultural land but Cllr Colley said the lake was originally dug as a filtering system for effluent from the former chicken farm. Fishing started when planning permission was given for the houses in Walnut Close. The Clerk read a copy of a letter sent by two residents to CDC, who are concerned about parking and nuisance in Walnut Close and Chapel Street if permission is refused. Other letters, strongly objecting to the scheme, have also been sent. D/Cllr O'Sullivan advised PC to try to get the decision deferred to give time to check the lake's original purpose. PC to object to the plan on the grounds that the lake was put there for another reason, and on the grounds of residents' views. 3. Mr Lewis from Chapmans Lane had written asking for PC's support following the erection of a pole by BT. Although the pole does not need permission, signs giving residents an opportunity to comment were put up after the pole.

D/Cllr O'Sullivan has already taken up residents' complaints with BT and PC will write to "add its weight".

PARISH FUNDS: £450,000 (Bradford & Bingley @ 6.3%; £100,000 (Treasury Deposit @ 5 7/16%); £19,046.54 (14 days notice @ 3.875%); £3,309.57 (overnight @ 2.125%). Total: £572,356.11.

CORRESPONDENCE: Mrs Gillian Brown of The Beeches wrote with proposals for a flower stall next to the Town Hall. PC agreed to charge £10 a day rent, to be reviewed after three months.

MEETING CLOSED at 9.55pm. NEXT MEETING: Wednesday, 16 April at 7.30pm in the Town Hall.

MILLENNIUM MAP PROJECT

What's so special about our parish? What makes Deddington, Clifton and Hempton distinctive? What do we value and want to conserve? We aim to answer these questions, and to celebrate the Millennium, by publishing a special, illustrated, Parish Map, at the beginning of the year 2000.

The first step is to collect information. Buffy Heywood and Chris Day are searching out the old field names before they disappear forever (the names, that is, not Buffy and Chris). Ken Langstaff and Colin Robinson are looking at hundreds of photographs and drawings, past and present. Kristin Thompson is investigating the wild plants and animals of our area. Betty Hill and Maureen Dew are studying the changing uses to which local buildings have been put.

John Cole and Bill Ivings have given us invaluable information on farmlands and footpaths. We need more - much more - on the land, buildings, history and people of our parish. We will carefully copy, catalogue and return any documents, maps, photographs and drawings you may have.

Some other parishes, like Charlbury and Garsington, have already completed their Parish Maps. We will be talking to them about their experiences - tips, wrinkles and pitfalls. We will do our very best to keep everybody informed of how the Millennium Map Project is going and what further help we need.

NEWS FROM THE SCHOOL

Our Junior children are studying "Ancient Greeks" this term. We enjoyed a day in London, visiting the British Museum to study the relevant artefacts.

Many of you will have seen the Primary School performance tables that were published recently. Whilst I regard this as an unreliable and unhelpful way of comparing schools, I was pleased with the confirmation of the good standards that our children achieve.

Success in sports has continued. Our Netball team takes pride of place having returned from a netball rally in Banbury with a League Winners' Shield. Our footballers have defeated Christopher Rawlins School (2-1) and Sibford Gower Primary (3-0).

I am delighted that we will be expanding after Easter, with an extra class and a new teacher, Mrs L. Langford, joining the staff. The numbers in our Infant classes will average 23.

PETER GORINGE

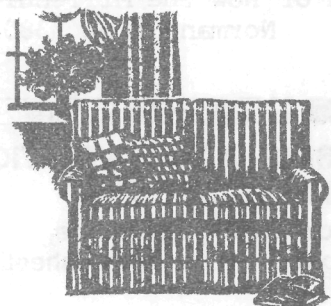

....and from the P.T.A.

The Quiz Night was a success with over £800 being raised towards the adventure playground fund. Everyone thoroughly enjoyed themselves. We would like to thank Whitbreads and Andy Miller for sponsoring the event, and Jim Flux for doing the sound system for us.

Among our forthcoming plans are a Car Treasure Hunt in May and, of course, our Fete on June 28.

TRIBUTES.

EDITH ELIZABETH HUMPHRIES, aged 82 years.

Edith was born at Huthwaite in Nottinghamshire and, after school, was employed in the textile industry. The family moved to Banbury in 1930, she met Perce and they married in Deddington Church in 1934. Living first in Deddington High Street, then the Paddocks, they had six children. As well as caring for the children, she undertook a number of jobs including working in Cromwell Cafe, then in the High Street.

Perce died in 1988. Edith continued to live in the Paddocks until she moved to Piers Row, three years ago.

She was a keen member of the British Legion Club and the Day Care Centre. We extend sympathy to members of her family.

ERIC DENNING SPENCER, aged 83 years.

Eric was born in Stoke Poges, his family later moving to Hempton. He married Florence in 1939 and they moved to Castle Street, where Eric lived for 58 years altogether. They had four children. Sadly, Florence suffered from rheumatoid arthritis for most of her married life and died in 1962.

Eric was responsible for much building work in Deddington. He was always hardworking and kept chickens and pigs, as well as his faithful dog, Beau Dibble, who was famous (featured in Reveille) for his ability to climb ladders! We extend sympathy to members of his family.

TWO MARATHON EFFORTS

It is a marathon effort to maintain the beautiful building of our Parish Church, one of the main centres of village events as well as a place of worship. On April 13, Linda Plowright from the Beeches in Deddington is taking part in the London Marathon (26.2 miles). We are seeking your support for the church marathon by sponsoring her in the run. Sponsor forms will be appearing round the village very soon, including at the back of the church and in the Post Office. Every bit of support will help in those last few miles!

VOLUNTEER DRIVERS are needed to help people who call the Volunteer Bureau for transport. The Bureau tries to find drivers who live close to the person needing help to keep the mileage down. Expenses of 30p per mile are paid. If you can help please phone 01295-279515, or call in 10 am-12 noon at 27 Horsefair, Banbury. Mary Lindsay, Co-ordinator - Volunteer Bureau

DEDDINGTON PRE-SCHOOL

This term we say goodbye to Louise and Max Rowland, Poppy Laithbury-Haigh, Holly Spengler, Edward Bruce, Evelyn Cook, Oliver Marchant, Alex Jardine and Matthew Boteler. We wish them all well. Following an inspection by OFSTED in February we are now able to accept Nursery Vouchers.

Our new opening hours are: Mon.- Fri. 9 a.m.- 11.30 a.m. Wed. afternoon "Getting ready for school" session 12.30 p.m.- 3 p.m. If you would like your child to attend pre-school you are welcome to visit us any time or telephone Jill Radini, at the number below, for further information.

In February we had a stall at Banbury Market and raised £97.00 and we recently had a cake stall in Deddington Market Place which raised £35.65. Thank you to everyone who gave their support. We held an Easter egg hunt on the last day of term. The children had great fun searching for the eggs.

We are having a Quiz Night on Friday, May 9th, 8.p.m. at Deddington Primary School. Tickets, price: £3, can be purchased from Pre-school or from committee members. Also another cake stall is planned for Saturday June 28th at 10.a.m. in the Market Place.

Finally, a big thank you to Deddington Arms, May Fu 11, Viva, Webbs, Crown and Tuns for donations and other anonymous donations which were gratefully received. These will be used to purchase resources.

BROWNIES

Well, we did the Big Crunch! All the Brownies baked biscuits in my kitchen in relays over half term and the next week. We baked and sold 135 packets of six biscuits in home-made boxes. We will be sending off about £70 to the Thinking Day Fund to help Guides and Brownies in countries poorer than our own. Very many thanks to all who generously bought biscuits and supported us. Every Brownie gained her Big Crunch badge.

Four Brownies came to the District Thinking Day Service (well done, Leah Alton, Ysanne Laithbury-Haigh, Holly Mumford, Holly Taylor and their parents). Leah and Ysanne looked splendid in Indian and Russian costumes and had to say "Hello" in the language of their country. We had a better turn-out for Mothering Sunday and the Brownies enjoyed bringing their flag into church and helping with the presentations and the collection.

Our trip to London with 11 Brownies on March 1st was a great success and great fun. We caught the train from Banbury, took the Underground to Victoria and visited the Guide Heritage Centre, most interesting and amusing. Then on to the Natural History Museum where we ate our packed lunches, went to the Earth Centre display including experiencing the Kobe earthquake - some fearless Brownies experienced the earthquake four or five times! - seeing the dinosaurs, the whales, and shopping in the museum shop. Back to Marylebone and then to Banbury a little after 6 p.m.. Thank you to Moira Byast (Tawny Owl) and Sue Steven who came with me.

The summer term meetings start on Tuesday April 8. We are off to Pack Holiday from 2-5 May and have Brownie Revels to look forward to on Friday June 6.

UNIVERSITY OF THE THIRD AGE

The subject matter of the second meeting in February was on home territory when Mr. Brian Little, of the Banbury Historical Society, sketched a comprehensive history of Banbury from medieval times to the present day. Members found the old maps of Banbury of great interest. Mr. John Burrows provided members with details of the many aspects of his work with the project, "Self Help for the Third World". This proved to be a most thought-provoking address.

BEECHES BOWLS CLUB

This month's activities will culminate in the re-opening of the green at the Windmill Centre in Hempton Road. Meanwhile there is plenty for members to do. There will be working parties for the green and pavilion on Saturdays, April 5th, 12th and 19th - please volunteer to Arthur Faulkner on 01295 257243. For light relief there is the last quiz night at the Legion on April 23rd, at 7.30 p.m. Then please get ready for the produce sale on Saturday morning, May 10th.

Everyone is welcome at our club nights each Wednesday at the green, starting at 6 p.m. Newcomers to the game can have a free tuition session with the club bowls and footwear. As well as tuition to improve everyone's skills, there will be bowls drives on alternate Wednesdays. So come along and have a go - we have excellent facilities and it's a great game!

JOHN CLIFFORD (Hon. Secretary) 340564

BRITISH LEGION

Entertainment nights continue to be successful. Thanks to all our regular supporters and our Entertainments Committee. Entrance charges are now generally £2 per person, with a £1 reduction for members, on live band nights. We do need to increase the number of paid-up club members. As the annual charge is a very modest £7 we hope that many of you will take this step. Terry Miall stepped down from the committee at the last AGM after having filled the role most ably for some ten years. We send all our thanks to Terry at Duns Tew.

The committee have started to consider the use of the land at the back of the club house once more. A purpose-built function room would be a great asset to the club and to Deddington. We are investigating funding and ideas which would meet the requirements of the club, the councils and the neighbourhood.

DEDDINGTON LACE DAY

On Saturday April 26 from 10am - 4.30pm up to 100 lacemakers from as far afield as Chipping Sodbury and Bedford, Putney and Evesham, will meet in the Parish Church to make pillow lace. They will meet friends and renew acquaintances made at other Lace Days - and envy those who do far more lace than they will ever have time to do. When they walk round the suppliers' stalls they are unlikely to keep their resolutions not to buy another bobbin or two, another pattern (they may never have time to make), another reel of thread (just right for the pattern they won't have time to make) and perhaps another pillow on which to work that pattern! They will chatter over tea and coffee and we shall provide them with special cake with their afternoon tea.

This Day has been arranged by the Deddington Lacemakers - the group which meets in the Primary School each Thursday afternoon during term time - with the help of Bure Bobbiners (Bicester Lacemakers). It will have the invaluable assistance of the Catering Team at the church serving morning and afternoon refreshments as well as Ploughman's lunches to order.

Proceeds of the Day will go to the Parish Church Quinquennial Repair Fund. You will be welcome to come and look - perhaps in awe at the intricate work, only to be told 'If you can count to four and plait I can teach you to make lace!' It's true - ask my students. Come and join us on Thursdays! JEAN PERREE 338655

ON THE FARM

Lambing is all but over, with just the stragglers left. Most of the ewes produced their lambs in the first 12 days so it was 'fast and furious' and I was getting about 4 hours' sleep a night but things went very well and we only needed the Vet once. The fall of lambs has been very good with most of the ewes having plenty of milk.

There were a number of triplets that could be split up and fostered on to ewes with singles and we have 5 'kade' lambs on the bottle which will keep the orchard tidy for the summer.

The mild weather has made life a lot easier as we have been able to put out ewes with lambs at 3 or 4 days old. Unfortunately we did lose a few lambs to foxes but they soon learnt that the lambing paddocks were not a very healthy place for them to be! For the first time in the 25 years that I have been in Clifton, the springs that feed the grass paddocks above the meadows have run dry and we are having to cart water to the sheep. We shall have to let them down to the river any day now and I hope none of the lambs goes for a swim!

The cereal crops have had the first dressing of compound fertilizer and look very forward for this time of year. The spring beans were planted with the dust blowing in the first week of March and I hope there will be enough rain to get them going. The 'brash' from the hedge cutting has now been burnt and the hard wood cut out and stacked to dry ready for next winter's log fires. The newly layered hedges are already coming out in leaf and should put on some new growth this next summer. They will be left to grow to about 7 feet tall and then trimmed to an 'A' shape and allowed to thicken out to provide good cover.

The bees are off to a good start with most hives taking in pollen from early flowers and shrubs, a good sign that the queen is laying. I shall now have to get going and spring clean all the hives and make sure that the queens have enough room to expand the brood chamber, as it is the young bees being hatched now that will bring in the early honey.

The rooks are nesting in the willows by Bowmans Bridge again this year and have made good use of the opportunity to feed their chicks on anything that was disturbed by the spring cultivations and, no doubt, some of the beans as well! The magpie population is on the increase again so we shall have to find the Larsen trap before the song birds start to nest. During late night lambing sessions I often saw a barn owl around the buildings. I hope he or she will find a mate and nest. We shall just have to wait and see.

GEORGE FENEMORE 338203

Friends of Daeda's Wood

The meeting on site with CDC engineers settled on a hard, rolled gravel surface suitable for wheelchair users of the main access path to be laid this summer; it will stretch from the small layby to be built near Bloxham Bridge through to the wild-flower meadow.

If there's demand, a pathway circuit may be developed in later years. You may notice one or two willows pollarded this year as the start of an annual cycle; this is within the Woodland Trust's long term management plan, along with mowing pathways and coppicing some areas in future to ensure light getting into the right places. I have a copy of the plan which you are welcome to see. Don't forget the wild-flower planting session on Sunday 13 April; it will be at 11.00 and only for about an hour or so; nothing too strenuous. Please bring a small container such as a yoghurt pot and maybe a spade. You'll be given a mixture of seed and sand and full instructions about what to do. Preferably park up near the recycling skips or even walk down Cosy Lane from the Daedings. This could be your little bit towards the millennium as well as a bit of fun; see you there?

Colin Robinson 338 272

Ed. note: Our thanks to Bill Drake for offering to take on the monitoring of the unusual species of damselfly thought to be harbouring at Daeda's Wood.

"THE BUS: your place, your space"

ESTABLISHED 15 YEARS

GARDENING NOTES

Get ready to plant your carrots, beetroots and salad seeds now there is some warmth in the soil. Indoors you could start to raise tomato, cucumber and courgette plants. These can be planted out in May when the possibility of frosts has abated. Once your plants have germinated in the house, put them in a place where they get some strong sunlight. If they are kept in the shade, plants raised indoors become leggy and weak. If you have to trail a hose pipe around your garden and find that sometimes you damage plants, you might consider using supports for the hose. Cut some pieces of wood, about 2" by 3" and some 3ft. 6" long. Get some garden hooks; these are a 'U' shape on a stalk. Screw the hooks into the top of the wooden posts. When knocking the posts into the ground, unscrew the hooks whilst hammering. An even cheaper way would be to screw rounded cup hooks into the side of the posts. Have some string attached to the posts so that the hose can be held in place, otherwise if you put the hose in the ground it tends to droop and may damage the tops of your plants.

OLIVER HAWES

Every garden has its most favoured spot and its difficult area. In ours we have a north wall which gets hardly any sunlight and some plants won't settle there at all. One shrub that will is the Hydrangea Petiolaris, a real joy. It is self-adhesive, quick growing and undemanding. Bright green foliage early in the year, then delightful lace-cap white flowers followed by bright yellow foliage when the leaves turn in the autumn. It actually prefers a north wall. Another good shrub that does well there is the American currant. You can get it with bright pink or dark pink blossom but a nice trick is to bring in bare branches in February and it will make leaf and snow-white blossom indoors. On the ground I grow Hostas, and herbs do well there. Thyme, Sage and Mint are happy there, as is Fennel. I don't actually like the smell or the taste of Fennel but it's such a beautiful plant to look at. The surprising thing about the Hostas is that contrary to the rules the variegated ones keep their stripes and patches even without sunlight. Finally here is a suggestion for a fruit tree. A Morello Cherry likes a north wall; the blossom is early and to see that white cloud is really cheering. A bonus is that it does not need a companion tree to fertilise it. We share the fruit on ours with the starlings and make Cherry Brandy with whatever they leave for us.

The average UK dustbin contains nearly 40% compostable material, which instead of feeding our gardens goes into landfill. DN carries some advice on composting from time to time in our gardening notes.

FROM THE EDITOR'S POSTBAG

FROM ALBERT HUMPHRIES, HIGH STREET, DEDDINGTON

May I, on behalf of my brothers, sisters and the rest of my family, express our sincere thanks to everyone for their messages of sympathy and acts of kindness after the recent sad loss of our Mother Mrs Edith Humphries. First of all a special Thank You' to the doctors and nurses of Deddington Health Centre for their care of our Mother over the last few years; as also to all of her friends who called to see her regularly.

We cannot thank Dawn Downing enough, as well as all the helpers and members of the Deddington Day Care Centre. Mum enjoyed the times she spent there and the trips out. She was overwhelmed by the way everyone took care of her. It was with this in mind that we decided on family flowers only at the funeral, with donations in Mum's memory to the Day Care Centre, via Humphris and Sons, Funeral Directors, Banbury. This fund will be kept open for about six weeks, so that people may contribute as they wish.

Last and by no means least we would like to say a big Thank You to the Reverend Ken Reeves for his compassion and for a lovely service.

FROM M.J. BUSBY, BRIMFIELD, LUDLOW, SHROPSHIRE

Were you a pupil at Deddington School between February 1926 and December 1942? If so, I am sure you will be pleased to know that Miss Miles - now Mrs Dorothy Busby - will celebrate her 90th birthday on April 12. She is hale and hearty and still drives around the Banbury area to play bridge.

She will be sharing her big day with friends and family and sends good wishes to all her former pupils.

NEWS FROM HEMPTON

I do not get about as much as I once did, and there must be more people in Hempton desirous of expressing themselves in these pages. Unfortunately they usually come forward long after the Deddington News has gone to print. The copy date is featured in the Diary on page 1: for the May issue it will be Tuesday 22 April. The editor is very willing to print your views, space permitting, if you write in good time. Meanwhile I have received the following observations: "Now that 'the hounds of spring are on winter's traces', Hemptonians can draw pleasure from the myriads of snowdrops and daffodils which are bursting out along borders of the roads and flourishing amid the avenues of chestnut trees, all legacies from the late Dennis Washington. We should not forget what he did for the village. Meanwhile we have a church which flourishes despite the Jeremiahs who once said that it would have to close down, and a village hall which aims to become a centre for village life. The Committee of the Friends of Hempton Church would welcome any suggestions for future events to be held there."

In conclusion I would like to express our appreciation of all the unpaid volunteers who produce and distribute the Deddington News.

DEDDINGTON FIRE SERVICE

FIRE CALLS : For the second month running we have received 10 calls which were: 3 chimney fires; 1 bonfire left unattended; 1 small fire in a ventilation ducting at the Horton General Hospital; 1 car in a garage on fire; 1 road traffic accident; 1 incident at Croughton School; 2 calls to chemicals dumped in laybys. This brings the total to 26.

RECRUITMENT : We have had two more applicants since the last issue. Both have had their medicals and are now awaiting the results. Martin Freeman is pushing on with his induction training and it is hoped he will be operational by the time the next issue appears.

RESIGNATION : At the end of February, Alan Boss resigned due to fresh commitments at work with a new employer. Alan has completed 15 years with the Brigade. For the last few years he was responsible for training the new recruits on the Station. We will miss him but wish him well in his new job.

THE WAY WE WERE Deddington 150 years ago by Buffy Heywood

Extracts from the diaries of the Rev. Cotton Risley for April 1847 :

18th APRIL - Spoke to Davies, the guardian, after morning Church about allowing a widow woman and her daughter 6d per week extra beyond their present pay - which is 2d in money and 3 loaves of bread.

20th APRIL - Read prayers by old James Baker at the Windmill, and visited and was obliged to scold an old woman thereat also for not allowing the Doctor to do what he wished toward her recovery from her present state of sores. Went to Hempton to read prayers by J.T., but found to my sorrow a ranting preacher with him - who had introduced himself - but whom, I found, he seemed rather inclined to tolerate - upon which I told him he must make his choice, for I would not come again unless I was requested so to do.

26th APRIL - Left home again for Hastings, where we remained till 17th May when we left for home via London. We spent Tuesday and Wednesday in London for the purpose of consulting Dr. Latham again, whom we saw and he pronounced Betsy somewhat better and approved of Dr. Duke's treatment of her whilst at Hastings and recommended us to persevere with his prescriptions and directions - we also did a good deal of shopping. We left London by the 12 o'clock train on Thursday morning and reached home (God be thanked) in safety about five o'clock by Bolton's coach from Oxford - where we found all the people glad to see us, and full of enquiries about Betsy.

As reported in February 1977 DN a Parish Councillor's intriguing proposal that 'in Jubilee Year Deddington should regain its status as a town and appoint a Mayor' was defeated - one concern expressed being 'the status of Clifton and Hempton - would they ... simply become suburbs of Deddington?' Perish the thought! In the same issue thanks were recorded on behalf of the community to Mrs Lewis of The Daedings who, 'since our comments on the litter problem, has been picking up litter round the village.' Does such a sense of community service live on? Everyone was gearing up for the Royal Silver Jubilee, with fund-raising including 'the mile of pennies in the Market Place... Can we make it 2 miles?' (This was to become a monthly event.)

By March 1977, the DN was already pulling in the advertisements and proudly announced the introduction of electronic stencils for block advertising material. Rates then were admittedly somewhat lower at £1 per quarter-page, but then so were costs and circulation (now nearly nudging the 1000 mark). Also lower were Meals on Wheels 'at the subsidised price of 15 p'.

With regard to an application to build 27 new houses in Clifton, the PC Notes reported 'a private opinion poll taken in Clifton had shown almost total objection to the scheme (which) would 'unbalance' the village and cause problems of social integration'! In the meantime 'Many people in Hempton were concerned about the sea of mud created by the hunt (in January).' Elsewhere there was a graphic account of the 'kidnapping' of Piers Gaveston from Castle House in June 1312 by the Earl of Warwick and his men.... unceremonious treatment for 'the royal favourite, once the kingdom's most powerful lord' who met his death only a few days later.
